"We cannot have our sale of them and amalogly prespectors interests without some disturkance of our social equilibrium. Social crimes are not inly children of social missirture, but are frequently bors of apparent forture, or, rather, they are the compensatory belances to restore the rocial equilibrium. It is a question for taste to decide whether stagnation and security are better than rapid development, with its accompanying wear and tear of the social machinery."

to Se says a writer in the Washingto Union after referring to the daily riots and ruffian defrages by which the National Capitol is getting to be so recently and deeply diagrated. He seems to take it for granted, that in order to be prosperous, a community must expect to have a good deal of, violence and crime perpetrated in its midst what I these are the compensatory balances (as he says) to restore the social equilibrium."

Dear reader, did you ever hear of that rather beculiar and certainly remarkable race of awine, of which the individual specimens are fald to "ran all to anoul"meaning, we suppose, that the masal catension is entrportingrily large, while the boily of the animal is very small? It is quite possible that the creature is rather meraphorical than real, as the phrase may be occasionally heard in reference to some parcine specimen of inhumanity in the human lorial.

But we do not mean to say, or even to instituate, that the writer in the Union is one of that sort of Acritters, " There are no perceptible signs of his extra endowment is a pasel way. But we have a glimmering suspicion that his core are a shade longer and broader than any respectable man ought to exhibit that in fact they Youge closely upon the donkey style. This suspicion of ours is founded directly and suicly peon the article from which we have clipped the above extract. And the article in question we may as well add, while we are about it - though apparently from the hand of a postributor, is just about as wise and bright as the average editoria's of the Union, notwithstanding that journal is the official organ of Mr. Huchanan's administration.

If gross crime and outrage are necessary incidents of "rapid development" and properity; if they are, as the Union writer alstore the social equilibrium " and if it be, as he affirms, merely "a question of taste" to decide whether we will have " stagnation perous interests" along with a certain and indianensable amount of infamous crimewhat's the use of criminal law, we should like to know ? . This Union philosopher has discovered that material prosperity and tocial crime are inseparable companions - ony, that the latter is an important element in the working of the social machinery !- Just so far, then, as we do anything toward the suppression or punishment of crime, we are to that extent operating to retard and injure the public prosperity !

This sort of stuff might do for fools to swallow-and possibly enough of it may answer very well for the constant and regular readers of public journals of the Lecompton stamp; but it won't go down with anybody bright enough to understand that two wrongs never yet made one right, or that twice two do not make five.

FIRE IN FALL RIVER .- An unoccupied two-story house, known as the "Head of the Road," in Fail River, was burned to the ground about 10 o'clock Sunday night. The house was the property of B. D. Davol, Esq., and was last occupied for disreputable purposes. The fire was the work of an incepdiary.

Price, in paper, 30 cents; cloth, 50 cents.

No one who owns or rents a square rod of ground can afford to be without this best of all garden manuals. It is an eminently popular and practical work -so clear and simple in style that everybody can undersund it; so convenient in form and size that it can be carried in the pecket; and so low in price that all can buy it; while, at the same time, it is thorough, comprehensive, and perfectly reliable. It tells how to coltivate everything belonging to the garden ; haw to plant trees; how to choose the best varietles of finite; how to prune, graft, bud, destroy insects, preserve fruits and regetables, and save seeds; and it not only tells the reader what in do, but why it should be done, thus giving him a new interest in everything. The morning prayer meetings are now on their fourth or fifth week, and the attendance on them does not diminish or the interest decrease, They alternate weekly with the several denominations, and a spirit of brotherly love and Christian Intercourse appears to pervade all the churches.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington; Friday, April 9th, 1858. In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Douglas, from the Committee on Territories, tenorted a substitute for the Bill to organize the Territory of Arizona, Entitled "An Act to amend the organic act establishing a Territorial Government, for New Mexico." This substitute provides that when Arizona shall pecome sufficiently populous to constitute a l State, the Legislature may proceed to call a Convention for the purpose of forming a Constitution, to be submitted to the People and if ratified by them, to be sent to Congress for admission within such boundaries leges; "the compensatory balances to 1e- | se Congress may prescribe; and this policy is made a standing rule for all future admissions of l'erritories except in the case of Utah, The Pacific Rail Road Bill was taand security," or a "stir of new and pros- | ken up and advocated by the C life rais Senators, and postponed until the next setting of the body. . The Joint Resolution directing the presentation of a medal to Commodore Paulding being taken up, Mr. Slidell, of Louisiana, spoke at length in condemnation of the course of the Commodore in arresting Walker in Nicaragna, yet holding that Walker's Expedition was wholly indefensible and should have been arrested by commander Chatard. This aubject was also postponed, in course, and the Sennte adjournned until Monday.

In the House of Representatives, the motion to recommit the Deficiency Bill, with head. The horse did not appear to be disinstructions, to the Committee of Ways turbed in the least by any of these operaand Means, was lost by a vote of 119 to 101. The main question being then order- , power of mun over the brute. - Middlelown ed, the Bill was rejected by a vote of 124 to ; 106. The Kansas Bill being taken up a motion to adhere to the House Amendment was carried by a vote of 110 to 111, Mr. Marshall, of Ky., having passed off with Mr. Bowie, of Md. The only chance now left for the passage of this Hi I, is the recession of the Senate from its rejection of the House Amendment. This subject has been thoroughly falked over in Senatorial circles and the conclusion arrived at, that " eight-Repres nialives must not be allowed to overbalance eight Senators." When the House adjoured, a motion was pending to re-consider the vote rejecting the Deficiency Bill, The Secretary of the Interior was yesterday assaulted, at the Department by Mr. Peter Besoncon, of Louisiana, an ex-clerk of the Department. The latter not bring satisfied with the replies of the Secretary to certain interrogations concerning the cause of his removal from his situation, followed up the Secretary, who had declined further conversation on the subject, and struck him with his fist, and was in the act of drawing a revolver when he was grasped by the Secretary and prevented from using it.

SPECTATOR.

John Mitchell thus defines his position. If it is done in seriousness, he is certainly a very moderate man, with exceedingly immoderate views: "I am a moderate man, and confine my Mexico and the West India Islands-and establishment of a potent Southern Confederation, based on Slavery; that's all; as for the conquest of the Northern States, I would defer that; though, indeed, Mr. Spratt of Charleston, whom I acknowledge as my pastor and master (bose) in American politics, has no doubt that Shavery will in ultimately prevail in those at present tooberighted communities, and save them from anarchy, otherwise coming upon them like an armed man."

The following little squib on "The pinks of propriety" was handed to us a few days since by one whose experience both in the fashionable world and the world at large has been considerable, and whose keen perception and knowledge of men and things is such that he appreciates such genti" as this with a conposescur's reliab. The Pinks of Propriety.

"There is a set of people," says the manly Dr. Chalmers, in one of his sermona, whom I cannot bear—the pinks of fashionable propriety-whose every word is pre-cise; and whose every movement is unexcepcase, and whose every movement is unexcep-tionable; but who, though versaid in all the cat-gories of polite technior, have not a particle of soul or cordiality about them. We allow that their manners may be alumilantly correct. There may be alumilantly correct. There was be allowed. alumilantly correct. There may be eleganed in every gesture, and gracefulness in every position; not a smile out of place, and not a ten that would not bear the severest seruti-This is all, very fine scherol for uti-ny. This is all, very fine schut what I want is the heart and the gasety of social inter-course—the frankness that spreads case and animation, around it—the, eye, that speaks affability to all, that chases timidity from every beaum, and talls approximate. from every bosom, and talls every man in the company to be confident and happy.— This is what I conceive to be the virtue of the text, and not the sickening formality, of these who walk by rule, and would reduce the whole of human life to a wire-bound system of misery and constraint.

A NISE THOUSAND DOLLAR WIFE LOST. The Kansas Herald relates thus how it was done-a hard case :

is An interesting case came off last week, before the Recorder's Court, in this city. It seems Dr. J. B. Chapman became enamor with a beautiful and accompamarriage. To this the Doctor readily con-sented; and made over to her, according to his account, about nine thousand dollars' worth of property. Since she came into possersjon of the property she declined marying him, and he brings his suit to recover the property. The girl won the suit."

Horse Taming.

We witnessed last week on Friday, a successful attempt to tome a wild young horse by Mr. J. Reynolds, It was at the harn of Dr. Casey. The horse belonged to Charles R. Alsop, Esq., of this city. was a sorrel; 4 years old, and never had been rode or driven. It was a high-strung; metilesome herse, and entirely unmanage able in the hands of a stranger. How iny man could undertake to "tame" such an auimal within less than eix months was a mystery. But the horse-tamer took him in hand, and without the use of any drug, or chloroform, or anything of the sort, within two hours he made him as steady as any old farm horse. He rode him and drove him without any difficulty, and in fact could not provoke him into a kick. The horse completely subdued. And not only was he perfectly gentle in Mr. Reynolds' hands, but in the hands of any one cise. Mr. Reynolds says he will always remnin so. He made the horse lie down at his command, and follow at his call. He rattled a tin pan around his ears, trundled a wheelbarrow around him, got on his back and suddenly apread an umbrella over his tions. This is a wonderful instance of the (Cl.) Constitution.

Corn Planting.

An Illinois farmer, who has been very successful in the cultivation of corn, gives the following as his mode of doing busi-

First, by plowing the ground deep -say eight inches-either in the fall or just before planting. If in the fall, drag it well, or, if cloddy, I mark it out with a light marker, so as to prevent ploughing deep, at a distance of 3 feet 6 inches apart, in rows each way, and put in from three to four kernels in each hill-invariably planting between the 1st and 10th of May. I prefer a double anovel plough, the first time over my corn. After that I prefer the single shovel. I plough about four times and have never failed of a good crop. Seed. corn should always be saved before frost in Seed Potatoes. B. K. Williams, of Cold Water, Mich., states that he has been experimenting upon seed potatoes for several years, and he hinds that one quarter of the seed generally used is an improvement. From one to two eyes in a shill, he says, will produce more potatoes, of more even size, and less more potatoes, of more even size, and less subject to decay, than any larger amount of sred. We think our farmers generally have been tending to the same theory for several years, aithough they have not perhaps carried it to that extent. The English and trish farmers say we use three times the seed they do, and that as a consequence we get more small potatoes and less large ones than they do, and not so good aggregate crops.

From Camp Scott we learn that Biltham Young had given Gen. Johnston notice to quit Unih on or before the tenth of March; out ring him pravisions for the return journey, end threatening him and bis troops with annihilation in case of refusal, the answer of Ge. Very truly and gratefully yours, SOLOMON MANN.

PRIENT Wood:—It was a long time after I have you at Blissfield before I got the buttle of Restorative, for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all that you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as antilled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

TESTIMONIALS

During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, E. q., of Boston did business at the Patent Office, as folicitor of procuring Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that canceity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were now who conducted it with more skill, fidelit and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed only most akilly affects of the common to the conducted in the success. I was a surface of the patent of the common test of the patent of the common test of the patent of the competent and trustworthy, and more capable of patting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the the Patent Office.

The Howard Association, in view of the aw fol destruction of human life, caused by sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate vigitius of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their roasulting Surgeon, as a Chartinhole Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary or actreatment of this class of diseases in all their form and to give Medical Advice Gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of exceme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add, that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feei assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great tenefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed acal to this very important but much despised cause.

Just published, by the Association, a Report
